Ledgers (Burlington) wins 2015 QuickStart Award

NEWMARKET, ON – October 24, 2015 – Ledgers Canada is pleased to announce that Ledgers (Burlington) is the recipient of the 2015 'QuickStart' Award.

Ledgers, a National Network of Accounting and Business Professionals provides a comprehensive suite of services to small business, their owners and the general public, ranging from Bookkeeping and Accounting Services to Payroll, Corporate and Personal Income Tax Preparation, Business Planning and more. Since opening this location in November 2014 operated by Ken Jacobsen, the business has grown steadily, exceeding the expectations for a new franchise operator.

This award is presented each year to the new franchise owner that goes the extra distance to promote their business through various marketing initiatives, uses the tools at their disposal to raise brand recognition for the Ledgers Trademarks, grows their business through extraordinary efforts and shows consistent support and dedication to the Ledgers team.

“For an individual to receive this award is a Major achievement, and this recognition is greatly deserved by Ken for his efforts, Ken is an incredible Team player and exemplifies the success one can receive for their efforts as a Ledgers Professional” said Ledgers Canada President Gordon Haslam.

About Ledgers Canada

Established in 1996 by a team of Chartered Accountants in Sydney Nova Scotia, Ledgers first franchise was awarded in 1997 to Terry Bachmann, in Moncton, New Brunswick. Ledgers was acquired by Gordon Haslam and moved to Newmarket ON in November 2000 and today, more than fifty Ledgers Professionals provide services to thousands of small business owners across Canada and the United States. The Ledgers concept has changed over the years and is constantly adding new services to further assist small business owners, including Ledgers Financial Services, a division that provides financial planning, insurance and investments to small business and the general public.

Gordon Haslam, President of Ledgers believes the Ledgers brand will achieve its next goal of 75 locations by the end of 2016.
